SYS Parent and Cheerleader Code of Conduct

The essential elements of character building and ethics in sports are embodied in the concept of sportsmanship and six core principles: trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, and good citizenship. We will lead by example, and teach our young ladies how to carry themselves as Ladies on and off the field.

PARENTS CODE OF CONDUCT

- I hereby pledge to provide positive support, care, and encouragement for my child participating in SYS by following this Parents' Code of Ethics.
- I (and my guest) will encourage good sportsmanship by demonstrating positive support for all players, coaches, and officials at every game, practice, or other SYS event.
- I (and my guest) will not engage in any kind of unsportsmanlike conduct with any official, coach, player, or parent such as booing and taunting; refusing to shake hands; or using profane language or gestures.
- I will place the emotional and physical well being of my child ahead of my personal desire to win.
- I will never ridicule or yell at my child or other participant for making a mistake of losing a competition.
- I will insist that my child play in a safe and healthy environment.
- I will require that my child's coach be trained in the responsibilities of being a SYS coach and that the coach upholds the Coaches Code of Conduct.
- I will support coaches and officials working with my child, in order to encourage a positive and enjoyable experience for all.
- I will demand a sports environment for my child that is free from drugs, tobacco, and alcohol and will refrain from their use at all SYS events.
- I will remember that the game is for youth-not adults.
- I will do my very best to make youth sports fun for my child.
- I will ask my child to treat other players, coaches, fans and officials with respect regardless of race, sex, creed or ability.
- I will help my child enjoy the SYS experience by doing whatever I can, such as being a respectful fan, assisting with coaching, or providing transportation.
- I understand that all my questions and concerns that pertain to my child's coach will be addressed with the coach before involving the SYS board.
- I understand that for every child I have registered to cheer with Sanger Youth Sports that myself or someone over the age of 15 will volunteer up to two hours in the concession stand.
- I understand that if I don't fulfill my volunteer commitment that my child will be dismissed from participating in one home game.
- I understand that SYS cheer is made up of all volunteers.
- I do understand that I will abide by the Parents' Code of Conduct, if I do not live up to the Parents' Code of Conduct, I will be subject to disciplinary action that could include, but is not limited to the following: verbal warning by official, coach, or SYS Board member; ejection from field or gym; parental game suspension; game forfeit; or season suspension with no refund of fees.

PARENTS EXPECTATIONS

- No pass, No Play, is highly supported by the SYS Board, but at parent's discretion.
- No play for unruly behavior off the field is also at parent's discretion and is highly supported by the SYS Board. If the unruly behavior occurs on the field, then coaches have the ability to enforce the no play rule for the benefit of the Team.
- Football Coach's shall meet with Team parents before first practice to advise parents of what is expected.
- We will use the "Live as One" motto.
- Playing hard is to be enforced with positive re-enforcement.
- We will keep the negative re-enforcement to a minimum.
- Unruly Coaches need to be reported to a SYS Football Board member as soon as possible.
- Only the Head Coach needs to speak with the Referee.
- At no time should any parent be aggressive with coaches or referees.
- All parents should be supportive and respectful of all coaches especially when players are present.
- Parents should be respectful of other fans.

ZERO TOLERANCE RULES

- All teams are responsible for the actions of their players, parents, team officials, and fans.
- All individuals associated with SYS shall conduct themselves in a proper manner at all times.
- Improper conduct is defined as behavior deemed detrimental to the philosophy and objectives of SYS, as well as any action which produces results detrimental to any team, individual player, or official.
- Players and spectators will direct all cheering to their own team and will not taunt, criticize, or jeer at other players. Badgering, name calling, or use of foul language by a coach, player, or spectator, whether directed at an official, coach, player or spectator will not be tolerated.
- Any coach/parent/guardian/spectator that attempts to cause physical injury or makes the threat thereof to any individual associated with SYS shall be immediately suspended from SYS activities for the remainder of the season with forfeiture of all fees.

SANGER YOUTH SPORTS ZERO TOLERANCE PROCEDURES

- Game officials have sole authority in determining when violations of these rules have occurred and what the appropriate action should be taken.
- The game will be stopped by officials when coaches, parents, or spectators, displaying inappropriate and disruptive behavior interfere with other spectators, or the game. The officials will identify the violator (s) to the coaches.
- Violation of these rules will result in a warning to the coach followed by ejection of the offending person(s) from the game. Once removed, play will resume. Lost time will not be replaced and the violator (s) may be subject to further disciplinary action by the SYS Board. Officials will assess appropriate penalties or fouls as required.
- If, in the sole opinion of the officials, the situation cannot be remedied by removal of the offending person (s), the game will be stopped and the offending team will forfeit.

Please detach the following page, sign and turn in at Parent Meeting on 4/23/16.
